Certification and Signature

The South Carolina Code of Laws Section 12-37-900 establishes that the tax control date is December 31st of the previous year. Some mapping requests may be processed for the current tax year and some may be processed for the future tax year. Combined parcels will maintain their original legal descriptions and derivations, which will need to reflect in future transfers. Map changes may be subject to reappraisal based on Act 388. An assessment notice will be mailed if a value change occurs.
